

The first office of the "Wave" was the north upstairs<sup>room</sup> of the first Wasatch County Court House.

see Room p 171
North room

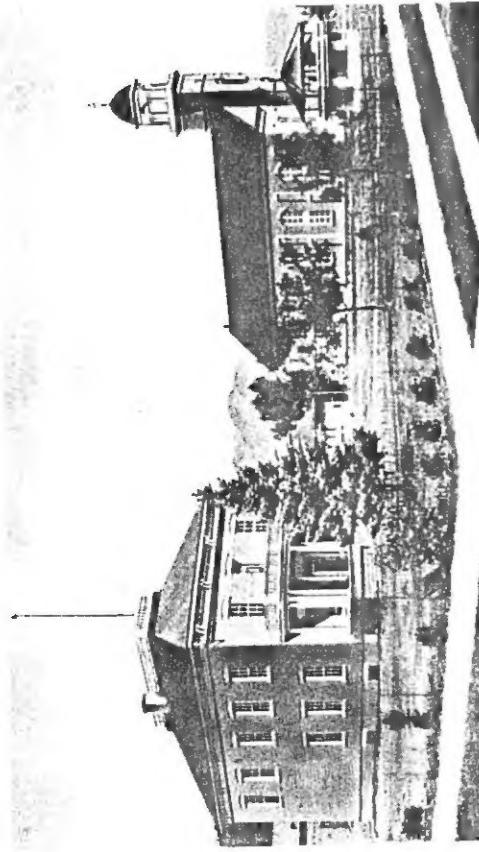

WOODEN PEGS—Solid structure of Courthouse roof is seen in pioneer craftsmanship of mortised and tenon beams held in place by wooden pegs.

10 Aug / 967

The old courthouse, located on Main Street where the County Building now stands. Building razed in 1958.

Town Square between Center Street and First North. Old County Court House, Tabernacle and Band Stand. Corner of jail just behind Court House and Social Hall just below Tabernacle.